Background

The mission of the Oregon State Bar is to serve justice by promoting respect for the rule of law, by improving the quality of legal services and by increasing access to justice. One of the three main functions of the bar is to ‘advance a fair, inclusive, and accessible justice system.

The Board of Governors and the House of Delegates have adopted a series of resolutions supporting adequate funding for civil legal services in Oregon (Delegate Resolutions in 1996, 1997, 2002, 2005–2020). This resolution is similar to the resolution passed in 2020.

The legal services organizations in Oregon were established by the state and local bar associations to increase access for low-income clients. The majority of the boards of the legal aid programs are appointed by state and local bar associations. The Oregon State Bar operates the Legal Services Program pursuant to ORS 9.572 to distributes the state statutory allocation for civil legal services and provide methods for evaluating the legal services programs. The Campaign for Equal Justice works collaboratively with the Oregon Law Foundation and the Oregon State Bar to support Oregon's legal aid programs. The Bar and the Oregon Law Foundation each appoint a member to serve on the board of the Campaign for Equal Justice.

Oregon's legal aid program consists of three separate non-profits that work together as part of an integrated service delivery system designed to provide high priority free civil legal services to low-income Oregonians in all 36 Oregon counties through offices in 17 communities. There are two statewide programs, Legal Aid Services of Oregon (LASO) and the Oregon Law Center (OLC); and one county wide program, the Center for Non-Profit Legal Services (Jackson County). Because the need is great and resources are limited, legal aid offices address high priority civil legal issues such as safety from domestic violence, housing, consumer law, income maintenance (social security, unemployment insurance, and other self-sufficiency benefits), health, employment and individual rights. In 2020, about 28% of legal aid's cases were family law cases, usually helping victims of domestic violence. Another 33% of cases were related to maintaining housing. All of these programs work to stretch limited resources through pro bono programs and self-help materials. Last year legal aid directly served 24,000 clients. An additional 110,000 Oregonians were served through impact litigation. Furthermore, hundreds of thousands of Oregonians were served through administrative advocacy. Legal aid's website, www.oregonlawhelp.com received over 470,000 unique visitors a year. Additional Oregonians who were victims of wildfires received vital self-help information and referrals through legal aid's disaster service website, <https://oregondisasterlegalservices.org>.

Currently, around 20% of lawyers contribute to the Campaign for Equal Justice each year, but in some Oregon regions (Jackson County and Lane County, for example), participation is as high as 40%.
